RE: WagerLogic Limited, v. Paramount Digital Entertainment, 11 Civ. 4310 (KBF)

Dear Judge Forrest:

I represent Third Party Defendant Amaya Gaming Group, Inc. I write on behalf of all parties to request an extension of time.

After the parties reached an agreement in principle to settle this action, on December 13, 2012, Your Honor entered a conditional order of dismissal, discontinuing this action without prejudice to restoring the action to this Court's calendar if application were made with thirty days. On January 9, 2013, Your Honor granted an extension of the deadline to January 28, 2013.

The parties to this action have been diligently engaged in negotiations and discussions concerning the terms and conditions of an appropriate Merchandise Licensing Agreement and Settlement Agreement, which are necessary to settle this litigation.

The Licensing Agreement is a complex 25-page document involving licensing of intellectual property rights to major motion pictures. The parties are close to reaching a final agreement on all the details of their agreement, but they will be unable to do so today. The parties believe that a short extension of February 1, 2013 will be sufficient to afford the parties time to finalize and execute the Settlement Agreement and the Licensing Agreement.

Accordingly, the parties request an extension of the time to apply to restore the case to
